

MAIN MEETING OF THE BUSINESS ETHICS NETWORK

Thursday 23rd November 2017

Provisional Draft Agenda

15:30 – 16:00 Registration & Coffee

16:00 – 16:10 Welcome and Opening Remarks

Steve Pegg, Lockheed Martin UK
and Chairman of the Business
Ethics Network

Open Session

16:10 – 16:30 The Work of Aerospace & Defence Innovation
Clusters

Darin Tudor, Head of the Aerospace
& Defence Innovation Clusters

16:30 – 16:50 The Implications of Human Rights for legitimate Aerospace and defence companies

Mark Thompson, Director,
Sustainability and Climate Change
Team, PwC UK

16:50 – 17:10 The Implications of the new Regulations on Tax Evasion

John Georgiou, Senior Manager, Ernst
& Young

17:10 – 17:15 Closing Remarks and Thanks

Steve Pegg, Lockheed Martin UK
and Chairman of the Business
Ethics Network

Closed Members-Only Session

17:15 – 17:55 Open Forum Discussions on where BEN's Human Rights Sub-Committee is now heading, the idea of generating ADS position papers on key topics, plans to update the Business Ethics Toolkit, and key topics to be covered at future meetings, with possibilities to include: modern slavery; human rights; tax evasion; gender pay gap reporting; diversity & inclusion; money laundering; and data protection, amongst others

17:55 – 18:00 Closing remarks

Steve Pegg, Lockheed Martin UK
and Chairman of the Business
Ethics Network

18:00 – 18:30 Networking reception with an opportunity for informal meetings

18:30 Disperse